If you really want to get away from Singapore (and people in general)

1 Visit Mai Chau Valley (above), located three hours by car from Hanoi. In the morning, do yoga or meditate in a cave that was formerly used as an arms repository during the Vietnam War.

2 Go moonlight horse-riding in Sumba, a remote tribal island four hours by plane from Bali, which practised human head-hunting until recently.

3 Pretend you're Lost on the private island of Taprobane (left), four hours by car from Colombo. The only way to access the island is to wade through water, which comes up to your waist at high tide. Q

All tours can be booked through local bespoke tour agency Urbane Nomads. Visit www.urbanenomads.com for more info.
