Passports must have at least 6 months validity beyond the date of your return from holidays

BOOKING CONDITION

Please read carefully, detach and keep with your travel documents.

1. Booking, Confirmation and Payment

- (a) In order to secure a booking you should complete and sign our booking form and return it to us together with a refundable deposit of 20% of the holiday price or, in the case of bookings made within eight weeks of departure, the full holiday price.
- (b) The balance of the holiday must be paid not later than eight weeks prior departure and if not received on time we reserve the right to treat the booking as cancelled by you and to levy cancellation charges as set out below.

2. Alterations by you

If, after we have confirmed a booking, you request a change in the dates or content of your itinerary we will do our best to meet your revised requirements and reserve the right to charge an alteration fee of 2% of the holiday price but any such requests received within eight weeks before departure will be treated as a cancellation and re-booking and thus subject to cancellation charges

3. Cancellation by you

All cancellations must be advised in writing and will take effect the day we receive it. Urbane Nomads refunds all recoverable costs after cancellation, subject to third-party cancellation and refund policies and a USD500 administration and travel planning fee. In some cases hotels require prepayment in full for hotel rooms and services in the peak period. In such cases these deposits are non refundable.

We advise all travellers to take up travel insurance which provides for trip cancellation.

4. Alterations or Cancellation by Us

- (a) Force Majeur- Neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure to perform any obligations under this Agreement due to causes which are beyond their reasonable control and of a nature which neither has the power or authority to remedy, include without limitation, acts of God, acts of civil or military disturbances, fires, floods, epidemics, wars, riots and acts of terrorism. In the event of such an occurrence, the party claiming relief thereon shall give prompt written notice thereof to the other party and any time for performance of an obligation shall be extended by time equal to the length of delay attributable to such occurrence.

- (b) Bookings affected by war, acts of terrorism or natural disaster have to be dealt with on a case by case basis.

5. Prices and Increases

- (a) Unless otherwise agreed the holiday price includes the cost of all scheduled flights, air charters, land and river transportation, accommodation, services of professional guides, game viewing drives, boating and fishing and most airport taxes.
- (b) Not included in the holiday price is travel insurance, excess baggage charges, tipping for services, drinks in some camps and lodges, specific meals in certain hotels and items of a personal nature

6. Your Responsibilities

- (a) It is your responsibility that passports (with 6 months validity beyond the date of your return), visas, inoculation certificates and other necessary travel documents are in order and we reserve the right to charge you any costs incurred by us due to your failure in any of these respects. It is also your responsibility to check in your flights by the correct time and to be in the right place at the right time for ground travel arrangements. We do not accept liabilities if you fail to do so and no credits or refunds will be given for lost or mislaid air tickets or other travel documents.
- (b) It is a condition of your contract with us that you act with reasonable prudence and circumspection whilst on holiday and that you comply with all health and safety requirements of guides, camps and the like.
- (c) As between you and suppliers of accommodation, transport and other services which form part of your holiday their conditions of business will apply which may mean that you will be required by such suppliers to sign liability waivers or other documentation for some potentially more hazardous activities such as balloon, canoe, walking and riding safaris and white water.

7. Insurance

You are strongly recommended to take out personal liability, personal accident medical expense and cancellation insurance at the time of booking your holidays.
