

MONGOLIA

An itinerary that sees you travelling through Northern Mongolia- the land of shamans, spirit worshippers and reindeer herders and, across a land that coincides with the Shambhala of ancient Buddhist scripture.

Day 1

Arrival in Beijing. Day spent at leisure.

Day 2

International flight connection to Ulan Baatar. Based in a luxury ger with floor to ceiling glass windows offering views of the vast Mongolian steppes and a central marble bath, you will be starting your Mongolian journey in suitable luxury.

Day 3

Domestic flight to Muren followed by a drive to base camp. A gourmet meal awaits you at base camp.

Day 4

Wake up early the next day to familiarize yourself with the horses- your mount for much of the rest of the trip. Riding a Mongolian horse is an interesting experience-its peculiar gait and the local terrain forcing you to abandon whatever you'd learn in those dressage classes!

Calling ourselves 'travel mixologists', we've served up interesting itineraries for you to choose from- all of which are available for tweaking and embellishments whilst keeping the main ingredients.

Beautifully-themed journeys for you to choose from and to tweak according to your predilections.

URBANE NOMADS

You'll be spending the next 5 nights riding, pitching tents at the end of the day and packing and continuing the journey the next.

Day 5

Continue to ride in the direction of the summer encampment of the tsaatans or reindeer herders.

Day 6

Arrival at the tsaatan encampment. Switch from horses to reindeers- Mongolia is the only part of the world(that we know of) where it is still possible to ride reindeers.

Day 7-8

Ride back in the direction of base camp

Day 9

Arrival at base camp. Take a well-deserved hot shower, followed by a spa treatment facilitating mare's milk!

Day 10

Flight back and overnight in Ulan Baatar.

Stay at the Ulan Baatar

Kempinski, closer to town tonight.
